SOLD AROUND THE WORLD!

Kellett Enterprises, Inc. presented the "New and Advanced" LP-13 Shake Absorber® Vibration Isolation pad at ITMA 2007. The pads were on display at the Promatech/ITEMA Weaving Group booth. Beverly Davis, Vice President, Sales & Marketing for Kellett Enterprises, Inc. first visited Promatech/ITEMA Weaving located in Colzate, Italy before attending the ITMA - 2007 show with Massimiliano Rosselli of Rosselli & C. S. r. l., who has been Kellett's European Agent for over 14 years.

Davis comments, "It was a pleasure to visit Promatech's manufacturing facility and see in action the quality weaving machines produced at this facility. We would like to thank Riccardo Maulino, Elena Bonomi, Francesco Alghsi, and Massimo Arrigoni for their valuable input that allowed us to present our new product with confidence at the ITMA - 2007 exhibit. We have provided the solutions for vibration issues for Promatech since 1997 and work closely with our customers to ensure that we have the best product available as technology continues to change."

She continues, "We would also like to thank Massimiliano Rosselli and his team for representing the LP-13 Shake Absorber® Vibration Isolation pad to their markets. Rosselli & C., S.r.l. is an authorized dealer for Promatech Weaving Group and other accessories to the textile industry. Alessandro Rosselli (the founder of Rosselli & C., S.r.l.) introduced the LP-13 Shake Absorber® Vibration pad to the Italian market many years ago and is still active in the business. Massimiliano has continued this tradition by expanding Rosselli's market to an international arena. We feel very fortunate to have Rosselli & C. S.r.l. as an extended member of our team."

Kellett Enterprises, Inc. pioneered the development of the three layer vibration isolation pad in 1967. We have a 16,000 square foot manufacturing facility located in Greenville, SC USA. We are also the manufacturer of the KE Shake Away™ Plus pads that were designed specifically for high efficiency washers and dryers.
